

PITY THE POOR BABIES!

Free Doctors Tell of the Poverty of Their Homes.

Little Ones Disease-Stricken Amid Want and Squalor.

The Sick Babies Fund Cares for All of Them It Can Find.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previously acknowledged $18,750.75
 Noble Maher, Brewster, N. Y. 1.00
 Frederic Pollak, 1.00
 Miss McKim, Mass. 1.00
 A. McKim, Mass. 1.00
 A. McKim, Mass. 1.00

The free doctors of the Sick Babies Fund have made you all the stories of their first visits to the tenements last Monday.

Every doctor has a heart-rending tale to unfold, and there are so many of them that "The Evening World" could not find room for the stories. It prints three more to-day, however, which are mere suggestions of the pitiful conditions that the Fund physicians found in making their rounds.

The fresh-air excursions this Summer, which will begin June 15, will do the poor babies a lot of good. There will be long and pleasant walks down the bay and up the Sound, with lively music, and plenty of refreshments for all hands. Two of these excursions will be given every week, and during the very hot spells they may be given more frequently.

But here are the free doctors' stories again:

In reviewing my district to-day—being a new one to me—and locating the very "poor" spots in it, I found in a wretched two-story and basement frame building in a rear yard on Market street, five families, numbering twenty-three souls, adults and children, occupying five rooms, with the basement for general use as a wash-room or laundry.

In one of these families was a girl of about sixteen years, who had been suffering seven years with a skin ailment, a eruption of the skin all over the body, which I diagnosed as lupus vulgaris, of a contagious character as evidenced by another child in the house showing symptoms of it. She had been to dispensary many times, without relief, nor could much hope be given on account of the unsanitary surroundings, poor diet and clothing, and want of proper medicinal and hygienic treatment.

None of these can be obtained by a sufferer in her present condition and surroundings. Efforts will be made to send her to one of the islands for treatment. The occupation of most of the persons here is that of peddling goods and garden truck. A few have to do steady work at harness making, and the work goes on other cities, where it is done cheaper than here by hand work. The dirtiest stories are told of the hardship of the past winter and spring, when the people, haled with delight, as promising some help and relief, the return of the "Evening World" doctor.

In that section of the city, known as the "East Side," downtown, and lying just south of Houston street, I saw the most densely coupled dwellings of the city, many thousands that cover this island.

The people occupying them are those of the highest of all Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

601 Baking Powder
 ABSOLUTELY PURE

WORK
 All "Situations Wanted" Female Advertisements in The World are Repeated in The Evening World without extra charge. 20 words cost 10 cents in The World. Over 500,000 Circulation Guaranteed.

WARRIELLOUS TRAGEDY.
 The Masterpiece of an Unknown and Its Startling Sequel.

"Gentleman to see you, sir."
 "Who is it?"

"He won't give me name, sir; but he says his business is most pressing and pertinacious. I told him you were engaged, but he would take no denial."

"Confound the fellow," said Mr. Quillet, throwing down his pen. "I'm busy. I can't possibly see him. Where have you left him, Jane?"

"In the hall, sir."

"I say, you ought not to have done that. Ten to one he's some thieving fellow after the hats and umbrellas. But you girls from the country!"

Mr. Quillet did not complete his sentence, for at that minute a tall, dark man walked into the room, and, after bowing to the astonished owner of the house with the blandest and most self-possessed of smiles, said suavely:

"I wish to see you in private, sir."

"Pray, sir, to what am I indebted for the honor of this call?" demanded Mr. Quillet, staring at the stranger through his eye-glasses.

"I see it stated in The Referee, Mr. Quillet, that you are writing a tragedy for production at the Erechtheum. May

PLATT LAUGHED OUT.

Mayor Strong Had Told a Joke at "Peach" Depew's Dinner.

Presidential Possibilities Kept in the Background.

Altogether the Doctor is Well Pleased with the Result.

It was just at the moment that the cankered clinked for the third time, according to historians who were at Dr. Depew's "all-night dinner" last night, that Mayor Strong told a funny story, whereat Boss Platt actually laughed right out before the other guests.

A man who was telling about it to-day referred to the feast as an "all-night dinner," because every one of the President's candidates, from the President-elect to the President-elect, had been divorced from his present home several times and is now paying the penalty by being cited before Boss Platt for contempt.

But about Mayor Strong's story and Boss Platt's laugh! The story did not amount to much in itself. It was one of those bonhomie descriptions of a Kentucky man, who carried a quart bottle ten miles and who found it was full of cough syrup for babies when he started to take a drink—the same story that every Ohio man tells when he gets a chance.

The frigid formality of a State event had characterized the feast, and even two real good stories from Dr. Depew could not dispel it. But when the Mayor told his story, it was different. When Mr. Platt laughed, it was different. The ice melted away a little.

Great and mighty power was given to something that was characterized by the public as it upon the authority of a distinguished politician, from Harrison, of Indiana, nodded over the rim of his cigar glass at Mr. McKinley, Ohio Governor.

Afterwards asked the Ohio Governor about a State Convention he held out at Zanesville the other day. The Governor made a five-minute speech, telling about it.

Politics, that is Presidential politics, did not figure in the small talk. There were many references to the President-elect, to the Democratic Administration, and to the President-elect, but they were all about the job they have on hand. Gov. Morton told a good story about the new-fangled "constitution" and the only reference made to the Presidential aspirations was by the Mayor, who said that he was going to be the next President.

Dr. Depew was immensely gratified at the success of his low-keyed story, without the results of it were declared this morning to be one good dinner and several good stories.

The full list of guests at the Doctor's board were: Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Gov. Morton, Gov. William McKinley, Senator Thomas H. Carter, Mr. McKinley, Senator Stephen E. Elkins, of West Virginia, Mayor Wm. W. Strong, ex-Senator Warner Miller, ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter, ex-Senator Frank H. Bland, National Committee Man Theodore Roosevelt, D. O. Mills, Lieut. Gov. Chas. Saxton, Senator Joseph Mullin, Gen. Harrison, and Lieut. Gov. Saxton.

Hotel Roof Firing Suppressed. The maids and men servants of the Fifth Avenue Hotel have been amusing themselves by indulging in more or less violent firings on the roof of the building, to the intense delight of the neighbors.

Confident of Recovery, in Spite of His Critical Condition. The condition of Police Captain Murphy, of the West One Hundredth street station, who has been ill with dropsy and kidney disease since his indictment for blackmail, is quite critical.

Mr. Hill Improves Daily. WASHINGTON, May 29.—Representative Hitt passed a fairly comfortable night. Each day shows a slight improvement over the preceding one, and on the whole his condition is quite a little better than one week ago.

Convict Claims to Be an Heir. J. H. Hunter, a prisoner in the Michigan City, Ind. Penitentiary, says he is the son of Margaret Hunter, who recently died in Newark, and who left him a large estate.

Mrs. Granville's Paper Unavailable. The Post-Office Department has decided that the Church Union, a religious paper, published by Mrs. E. B. Granville, of New York, is a dangerous publication, and has ordered that it be suppressed.

Will It Be Dickinson? (Special to The Evening World.) WARREN, N. J., May 29.—Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan, according to a bulletin in Government circles, is going to succeed to the portfolio left vacant by the death of Secretary of State Greaham.

Emperor Fredrick. The Late Johann Hoff as an honorary member of the National Society, of which he was the head, in acknowledgment of the merits of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

You Can Be Comfortable. The 46th Street Baumanns' America's Greatest Furniture Dealers, will Furnish Your Home with Every Known Requisite on their Unequalled Credit System Without Ready Cash.

STRICTLY ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. Furniture, Carpets, Bedding, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings, Refrigerators, Stoves, Lamps, Curtains, Crockery, Tinware and Housefurnishings. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO OUT-OF-TOWN TRADE.

S. BAUMANN & CO., Cor. 46th St. and Eighth Avenue. OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 10 P. M.

COWPERTHWAIT'S CARPETS. The Best Moquette Carpet, With or Without Borders to Match. at 79 Cents Per Yard.

Fancy Waists. NEVER MORE BEAUTIFUL—BUT IT'S THE BEAUTY OF QUIET RICHNESS RATHER THAN GLARING PROMINENCE. THE COLOR OF THAT DAINTESS WHICH AS SUNLIGHT GIVES TO A CLOUD WEATH.

COWPERTHWAIT & CO. 104, 106 & 108 WEST 14TH ST. NEAR 6TH AVE. BROOKLYN STRAITS. BRUSH AVENUE, NEAR FULTON ST.

The Leader. We sell to-morrow (Friday) about one hundred dozen Ladies' Fancy Waists, in a number of pretty styles, including the one illustrated above, in Lawns, Chambrays, Percales and Cambrics, in all sizes and colors—most of them have been sold from $1.08 to $2.25 each.

Prepaid mail orders filled promptly. None sent C. O. D. out of the city.

Flats and Apartments to Let. ONE MONTH PRICE—Elegant desirable flat, only one block from 14th st. elevated station, rent $12.00 to $15.00. Apply 114 Broadway.

Amusements. COLUMBIA THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

WILL IT BE DICKINSON?

Belief that He Will Succeed Greaham as Secretary of State.

The Michigan statesman, who was Postmaster-General during Mr. Cleveland's first term, is in training for the Premiership. He is in thorough accord with the President's foreign policy as expressed at a recent meeting of the Cabinet, and in a recent speech at Detroit, indicated Mr. Cleveland's views on the subject.

These views, in addition to urging a broad and patriotic sentiment in a general sense, were directed to favor the policy of Great Britain towards desirable territory in South America, particularly directed at the moment towards the acquisition of disputed boundary rights in Venezuela.

A firm, although conservative policy, having in view the protection of South American Governments, from the consistent demonstrations made by Great Britain, and the weaker Governments of South America, is favored by the President and indicated by Mr. Dickinson.

It is believed Mr. Dickinson will assume the direction of the Government's foreign policy.

A further report in official circles is that Congressman Leonard P. Livingston of Georgia, is to be made Minister to Venezuela, in order to carry out the President's foreign policy as it applies to that nation. Mr. Livingston will shortly sail for Venezuela, as a guest of that nation.

He is expected, will instruct the Venezuelan as to the construction placed upon the Monroe doctrine by the President. If he were made the diplomatic representative of the United States to that country, it would not occasion any surprise.

Dr. Depew was immensely gratified at the success of his low-keyed story, without the results of it were declared this morning to be one good dinner and several good stories.

The full list of guests at the Doctor's board were: Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Gov. Morton, Gov. William McKinley, Senator Thomas H. Carter, Mr. McKinley, Senator Stephen E. Elkins, of West Virginia, Mayor Wm. W. Strong, ex-Senator Warner Miller, ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter, ex-Senator Frank H. Bland, National Committee Man Theodore Roosevelt, D. O. Mills, Lieut. Gov. Chas. Saxton, Senator Joseph Mullin, Gen. Harrison, and Lieut. Gov. Saxton.

Hotel Roof Firing Suppressed. The maids and men servants of the Fifth Avenue Hotel have been amusing themselves by indulging in more or less violent firings on the roof of the building, to the intense delight of the neighbors.

Confident of Recovery, in Spite of His Critical Condition. The condition of Police Captain Murphy, of the West One Hundredth street station, who has been ill with dropsy and kidney disease since his indictment for blackmail, is quite critical.

Mr. Hill Improves Daily. WASHINGTON, May 29.—Representative Hitt passed a fairly comfortable night. Each day shows a slight improvement over the preceding one, and on the whole his condition is quite a little better than one week ago.

Convict Claims to Be an Heir. J. H. Hunter, a prisoner in the Michigan City, Ind. Penitentiary, says he is the son of Margaret Hunter, who recently died in Newark, and who left him a large estate.

Mrs. Granville's Paper Unavailable. The Post-Office Department has decided that the Church Union, a religious paper, published by Mrs. E. B. Granville, of New York, is a dangerous publication, and has ordered that it be suppressed.

Will It Be Dickinson? (Special to The Evening World.) WARREN, N. J., May 29.—Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan, according to a bulletin in Government circles, is going to succeed to the portfolio left vacant by the death of Secretary of State Greaham.

Emperor Fredrick. The Late Johann Hoff as an honorary member of the National Society, of which he was the head, in acknowledgment of the merits of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

You Can Be Comfortable. The 46th Street Baumanns' America's Greatest Furniture Dealers, will Furnish Your Home with Every Known Requisite on their Unequalled Credit System Without Ready Cash.

STRICTLY ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. Furniture, Carpets, Bedding, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings, Refrigerators, Stoves, Lamps, Curtains, Crockery, Tinware and Housefurnishings. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO OUT-OF-TOWN TRADE.

S. BAUMANN & CO., Cor. 46th St. and Eighth Avenue. OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 10 P. M.

COWPERTHWAIT'S CARPETS. The Best Moquette Carpet, With or Without Borders to Match. at 79 Cents Per Yard.

Fancy Waists. NEVER MORE BEAUTIFUL—BUT IT'S THE BEAUTY OF QUIET RICHNESS RATHER THAN GLARING PROMINENCE. THE COLOR OF THAT DAINTESS WHICH AS SUNLIGHT GIVES TO A CLOUD WEATH.

COWPERTHWAIT & CO. 104, 106 & 108 WEST 14TH ST. NEAR 6TH AVE. BROOKLYN STRAITS. BRUSH AVENUE, NEAR FULTON ST.

The Leader. We sell to-morrow (Friday) about one hundred dozen Ladies' Fancy Waists, in a number of pretty styles, including the one illustrated above, in Lawns, Chambrays, Percales and Cambrics, in all sizes and colors—most of them have been sold from $1.08 to $2.25 each.

Prepaid mail orders filled promptly. None sent C. O. D. out of the city.

Flats and Apartments to Let. ONE MONTH PRICE—Elegant desirable flat, only one block from 14th st. elevated station, rent $12.00 to $15.00. Apply 114 Broadway.

Amusements. COLUMBIA THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

PLATT LAUGHED OUT.

Mayor Strong Had Told a Joke at "Peach" Depew's Dinner.

Presidential Possibilities Kept in the Background.

Altogether the Doctor is Well Pleased with the Result.

It was just at the moment that the cankered clinked for the third time, according to historians who were at Dr. Depew's "all-night dinner" last night, that Mayor Strong told a funny story, whereat Boss Platt actually laughed right out before the other guests.

A man who was telling about it to-day referred to the feast as an "all-night dinner," because every one of the President's candidates, from the President-elect to the President-elect, had been divorced from his present home several times and is now paying the penalty by being cited before Boss Platt for contempt.

But about Mayor Strong's story and Boss Platt's laugh! The story did not amount to much in itself. It was one of those bonhomie descriptions of a Kentucky man, who carried a quart bottle ten miles and who found it was full of cough syrup for babies when he started to take a drink—the same story that every Ohio man tells when he gets a chance.

The frigid formality of a State event had characterized the feast, and even two real good stories from Dr. Depew could not dispel it. But when the Mayor told his story, it was different. When Mr. Platt laughed, it was different. The ice melted away a little.

Great and mighty power was given to something that was characterized by the public as it upon the authority of a distinguished politician, from Harrison, of Indiana, nodded over the rim of his cigar glass at Mr. McKinley, Ohio Governor.

Afterwards asked the Ohio Governor about a State Convention he held out at Zanesville the other day. The Governor made a five-minute speech, telling about it.

Politics, that is Presidential politics, did not figure in the small talk. There were many references to the President-elect, to the Democratic Administration, and to the President-elect, but they were all about the job they have on hand. Gov. Morton told a good story about the new-fangled "constitution" and the only reference made to the Presidential aspirations was by the Mayor, who said that he was going to be the next President.

Dr. Depew was immensely gratified at the success of his low-keyed story, without the results of it were declared this morning to be one good dinner and several good stories.

The full list of guests at the Doctor's board were: Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Gov. Morton, Gov. William McKinley, Senator Thomas H. Carter, Mr. McKinley, Senator Stephen E. Elkins, of West Virginia, Mayor Wm. W. Strong, ex-Senator Warner Miller, ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter, ex-Senator Frank H. Bland, National Committee Man Theodore Roosevelt, D. O. Mills, Lieut. Gov. Chas. Saxton, Senator Joseph Mullin, Gen. Harrison, and Lieut. Gov. Saxton.

Hotel Roof Firing Suppressed. The maids and men servants of the Fifth Avenue Hotel have been amusing themselves by indulging in more or less violent firings on the roof of the building, to the intense delight of the neighbors.

Confident of Recovery, in Spite of His Critical Condition. The condition of Police Captain Murphy, of the West One Hundredth street station, who has been ill with dropsy and kidney disease since his indictment for blackmail, is quite critical.

Mr. Hill Improves Daily. WASHINGTON, May 29.—Representative Hitt passed a fairly comfortable night. Each day shows a slight improvement over the preceding one, and on the whole his condition is quite a little better than one week ago.

Convict Claims to Be an Heir. J. H. Hunter, a prisoner in the Michigan City, Ind. Penitentiary, says he is the son of Margaret Hunter, who recently died in Newark, and who left him a large estate.

Mrs. Granville's Paper Unavailable. The Post-Office Department has decided that the Church Union, a religious paper, published by Mrs. E. B. Granville, of New York, is a dangerous publication, and has ordered that it be suppressed.

Will It Be Dickinson? (Special to The Evening World.) WARREN, N. J., May 29.—Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan, according to a bulletin in Government circles, is going to succeed to the portfolio left vacant by the death of Secretary of State Greaham.

Emperor Fredrick. The Late Johann Hoff as an honorary member of the National Society, of which he was the head, in acknowledgment of the merits of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

You Can Be Comfortable. The 46th Street Baumanns' America's Greatest Furniture Dealers, will Furnish Your Home with Every Known Requisite on their Unequalled Credit System Without Ready Cash.

STRICTLY ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. Furniture, Carpets, Bedding, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings, Refrigerators, Stoves, Lamps, Curtains, Crockery, Tinware and Housefurnishings. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO OUT-OF-TOWN TRADE.

S. BAUMANN & CO., Cor. 46th St. and Eighth Avenue. OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 10 P. M.

COWPERTHWAIT'S CARPETS. The Best Moquette Carpet, With or Without Borders to Match. at 79 Cents Per Yard.

Fancy Waists. NEVER MORE BEAUTIFUL—BUT IT'S THE BEAUTY OF QUIET RICHNESS RATHER THAN GLARING PROMINENCE. THE COLOR OF THAT DAINTESS WHICH AS SUNLIGHT GIVES TO A CLOUD WEATH.

COWPERTHWAIT & CO. 104, 106 & 108 WEST 14TH ST. NEAR 6TH AVE. BROOKLYN STRAITS. BRUSH AVENUE, NEAR FULTON ST.

The Leader. We sell to-morrow (Friday) about one hundred dozen Ladies' Fancy Waists, in a number of pretty styles, including the one illustrated above, in Lawns, Chambrays, Percales and Cambrics, in all sizes and colors—most of them have been sold from $1.08 to $2.25 each.

Prepaid mail orders filled promptly. None sent C. O. D. out of the city.

Flats and Apartments to Let. ONE MONTH PRICE—Elegant desirable flat, only one block from 14th st. elevated station, rent $12.00 to $15.00. Apply 114 Broadway.

Amusements. COLUMBIA THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

WILL IT BE DICKINSON?

Belief that He Will Succeed Greaham as Secretary of State.

The Michigan statesman, who was Postmaster-General during Mr. Cleveland's first term, is in training for the Premiership. He is in thorough accord with the President's foreign policy as expressed at a recent meeting of the Cabinet, and in a recent speech at Detroit, indicated Mr. Cleveland's views on the subject.

These views, in addition to urging a broad and patriotic sentiment in a general sense, were directed to favor the policy of Great Britain towards desirable territory in South America, particularly directed at the moment towards the acquisition of disputed boundary rights in Venezuela.

A firm, although conservative policy, having in view the protection of South American Governments, from the consistent demonstrations made by Great Britain, and the weaker Governments of South America, is favored by the President and indicated by Mr. Dickinson.

It is believed Mr. Dickinson will assume the direction of the Government's foreign policy.

A further report in official circles is that Congressman Leonard P. Livingston of Georgia, is to be made Minister to Venezuela, in order to carry out the President's foreign policy as it applies to that nation. Mr. Livingston will shortly sail for Venezuela, as a guest of that nation.

He is expected, will instruct the Venezuelan as to the construction placed upon the Monroe doctrine by the President. If he were made the diplomatic representative of the United States to that country, it would not occasion any surprise.

Dr. Depew was immensely gratified at the success of his low-keyed story, without the results of it were declared this morning to be one good dinner and several good stories.

The full list of guests at the Doctor's board were: Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Gov. Morton, Gov. William McKinley, Senator Thomas H. Carter, Mr. McKinley, Senator Stephen E. Elkins, of West Virginia, Mayor Wm. W. Strong, ex-Senator Warner Miller, ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter, ex-Senator Frank H. Bland, National Committee Man Theodore Roosevelt, D. O. Mills, Lieut. Gov. Chas. Saxton, Senator Joseph Mullin, Gen. Harrison, and Lieut. Gov. Saxton.

Hotel Roof Firing Suppressed. The maids and men servants of the Fifth Avenue Hotel have been amusing themselves by indulging in more or less violent firings on the roof of the building, to the intense delight of the neighbors.

Confident of Recovery, in Spite of His Critical Condition. The condition of Police Captain Murphy, of the West One Hundredth street station, who has been ill with dropsy and kidney disease since his indictment for blackmail, is quite critical.

Mr. Hill Improves Daily. WASHINGTON, May 29.—Representative Hitt passed a fairly comfortable night. Each day shows a slight improvement over the preceding one, and on the whole his condition is quite a little better than one week ago.

Convict Claims to Be an Heir. J. H. Hunter, a prisoner in the Michigan City, Ind. Penitentiary, says he is the son of Margaret Hunter, who recently died in Newark, and who left him a large estate.

Mrs. Granville's Paper Unavailable. The Post-Office Department has decided that the Church Union, a religious paper, published by Mrs. E. B. Granville, of New York, is a dangerous publication, and has ordered that it be suppressed.

Will It Be Dickinson? (Special to The Evening World.) WARREN, N. J., May 29.—Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan, according to a bulletin in Government circles, is going to succeed to the portfolio left vacant by the death of Secretary of State Greaham.

Emperor Fredrick. The Late Johann Hoff as an honorary member of the National Society, of which he was the head, in acknowledgment of the merits of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

You Can Be Comfortable. The 46th Street Baumanns' America's Greatest Furniture Dealers, will Furnish Your Home with Every Known Requisite on their Unequalled Credit System Without Ready Cash.

STRICTLY ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. Furniture, Carpets, Bedding, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings, Refrigerators, Stoves, Lamps, Curtains, Crockery, Tinware and Housefurnishings. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO OUT-OF-TOWN TRADE.

S. BAUMANN & CO., Cor. 46th St. and Eighth Avenue. OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 10 P. M.

COWPERTHWAIT'S CARPETS. The Best Moquette Carpet, With or Without Borders to Match. at 79 Cents Per Yard.

Fancy Waists. NEVER MORE BEAUTIFUL—BUT IT'S THE BEAUTY OF QUIET RICHNESS RATHER THAN GLARING PROMINENCE. THE COLOR OF THAT DAINTESS WHICH AS SUNLIGHT GIVES TO A CLOUD WEATH.

COWPERTHWAIT & CO. 104, 106 & 108 WEST 14TH ST. NEAR 6TH AVE. BROOKLYN STRAITS. BRUSH AVENUE, NEAR FULTON ST.

The Leader. We sell to-morrow (Friday) about one hundred dozen Ladies' Fancy Waists, in a number of pretty styles, including the one illustrated above, in Lawns, Chambrays, Percales and Cambrics, in all sizes and colors—most of them have been sold from $1.08 to $2.25 each.

Prepaid mail orders filled promptly. None sent C. O. D. out of the city.

Flats and Apartments to Let. ONE MONTH PRICE—Elegant desirable flat, only one block from 14th st. elevated station, rent $12.00 to $15.00. Apply 114 Broadway.

Amusements. COLUMBIA THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev' Wed. Sat. Mat. To-day, Mon. & Tues. 7 P. M. New week—Katy Clayton and Miss Janss. Next week—The Two Orphans.

Amusements. THEATRE. Ev